2010 PSIW Scholarship Application

The Poultry Service Industry Workshop has created a scholarship fund on behalf of the Workshop speakers, in lieu of gifts, allowing a maximum of three students to attend the Workshop. The scholarship will cover the costs of registration and accommodation; however, students will be responsible for their own transportation. Any student with an active interest in poultry research can apply for the scholarship by completing this form and submitting a short essay explaining why they feel they deserve the opportunity to attend the Workshop. Submission deadline is Monday, August 16th, 2010.
